Free Activities

GET OUT ON THE WATER

Freycinet is a great place for a wide range of watersports. Check out Friendly Beaches for a surf or the Great Oyster bay area for windsurfing. If kayaks are more your style, head out early to avoid the strong breezes and always check the weather forecast. If sightseeing by boat the Freycinet Peninsula offers breathtaking views of the Freycinet coastline, crystal-clear waters, and abundant marine life.

ROCK CLIMBING

Freycinet National Park has a number of great granite climbing areas. The highest concentration of climbs is centred around whitewater wall, sea cliff climbs. There is a climbers camp near whitewater wall, inside the national park. Access is by a 4wd track or vehicle with good clearance.

DAY WALKS & SCENIC DRIVES

Strap on your walking boots and enjoy one of the many short, half day, or overnight walking tracks around the peninsula. If walking is not your style, hop in the car and take a scenic drive to Cape Tourville or Friendly Beaches to enjoy the sights.

EMERGENCY SERVICES CALL 000 FIRE / AMBULANCE / POLICE

Triple Zero (000) is Australia's main emergency service number. You should call 000 if you need urgent help from police, fire or ambulance services.

INJURED WILDLIFE - 24 HOURS

If you find injured or orphaned wildlife call Bonorong immediately. Find Wildlife Management advice from the Tasmanian Government on what to do if you find sick, injured, or orphaned animals in Tasmania are including legislative requirements.

Prepared by The Freycinet Coast Association

The Freycinet Coast Association plays a key role in enhancing the visitor experience on the Freycinet Coast. We fund and support the development of essential facilities, such as walkways, information bays, sculptures, and interpretive signage, all designed to enrich your visit and deepen your connection to this spectacular region. Through these initiatives, we help ensure that both locals and tourists can fully appreciate the natural beauty, history, and cultural significance of Freycinet, while also maintaining the park's accessibility and sustainability for future generations.

How You Can Get Involved

Joining the association is easy, simply go to wineglassbay.com/business-membership/ and choose the membership that is right for you.
